CALL FOR PERFORMANCES

Calling music performers (individuals & groups) of all genres and styles

SMEI is seeking music performances (4–6 minutes) from across the country and representing a wide variety of genres to contribute to the forthcoming 10th Annual Conference. This is an online conference, so all performances will be pre-recorded and broadcast throughout our 3-day conference (4th–6th November).

To Submit an Application

- Video record a short performance (4–6 minutes),
- Complete this application form ensuring that you include a link to your performance video. The person submitting the application must be 18 years or over. Performers may include young people and children under 18 but the applicant must ensure that all Child Protection Regulations have been met.
- Closing date for receipt of applications is Friday 29th October

About Society of Music Education in Ireland

SMEI is an umbrella body of individuals, groups, institutions and organisations practicing in various aspects of music education on the island. It provides a forum whereby members can discuss issues of common concern, identify areas of common practice and share information on topics of mutual interest. SMEI engages with other national and music education organisations, and corresponds with governmental agencies on matters relating to music education advocacy. It is also actively involved in the facilitation of workshops, conference and showcase events at regional and national level.
